

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

The Charles and Joan Alberto Italian Studies Institute

Presents an Italian Film Series

Every Tuesday Night at 6:30 pm

Beck Rooms of the Walsh Library

Films:

Alessandro Blasetti, 1860 (Jan 22)

Ettore Scola, A Special Day (Jan 29)

Roberto Rossellini, Rome, Open City (Feb 5)

Vittorio De Sica, The Garden of the Finzi-Contini (Feb 12)

Pietro Germi, Seduced and Abandoned (Feb 19)

Marco Tullio Giordana, The Best of Youth (March 4 and 11)

Emanuele Crialesi, Golden Door (April 1, introduced by Dr. Tamburri, Dean of John Calandra Italian American Institute of NY)

Gianni Amelio, Lamerica (April 8)

Paolo Virzi, Caterina in the Big City (April 15)

All films, unless otherwise indicated, will be introduced by Dr. Romani.

Free and open to the public.

Light refreshments will be served

For more detailed information, contact Barbara Ritchie at 973-275 2967 or at ritchiba@shu.edu